Internmela gave a headstart in my career. The entire experience was very illuminating. This event gave me an opportunity to explore various career options and got introduced to the corporate world.

Everything was well organised. None of the company schedules collided with the other company. The team was very helpful in every aspect and provided every information regarding the company.

From being ambitious participant in internmela to grab internship at anexas consultancy to holding internmela, the road was hard and it was lifetime experience.
